In accordance with Article 1366 of the French Civil Code, each party authorises the designated notary to send them any notifications required for the purposes of the file, by registered mail with acknowledgment of receipt or by electronic registered mail to the addresses indicated above. Each party acknowledges and guarantees that they have exclusive control over the e-mail account they have provided, particularly for regular access, the confidentiality of the login details allowing access to it, and the management of reception settings and incoming mail filtering. Where applicable, each party guarantees that any third party accessing the e-mail account is authorised by them to represent and act on their behalf. The party undertakes to immediately report any loss or misuse of their e-mail account. Until such notification is received, any action performed through the party's e-mail account by an authorised party shall be deemed to have been performed by said party and shall be their sole responsibility for all legal and regulatory consequences of the aforementioned notifications.
